In addition, the Port reserves the right to call any witness named by appellant Airport Communities Coalition or respondent Department of Ecology. The Port also reserves the right to modify this list to name additional witnesses necessary to rebut evidence proposed to be introduced by appellants at the hearing on the merits and about whose opinions and testimony the Port has not been informed through this proceeding to date or through discovery.

II. EXHIBITS

The Port designates the following documents as potential exhibits that may be introduced as exhibits into the administrative record at the hearing in this matter. In addition to the documents listed below, the Port also designates all documents designated either by appellant Airport Communities Coalition or by respondent Department of Ecology. The Port reserves the right to designate additional exhibits in order to rebut issues and evidence raised by appellant or to rebut opinions and testimony of which the Port has not been informed to date through this proceeding or through discovery. The Port also designates all supplemental and further reports submitted to the Washington Department of Ecology pursuant to Ecology’s re-issued §401 Certification.
